CONFERENCE BROCHURE

The global landscape of technical textiles is witnessing unprecedented growth, driven by innovation, sustainability, and versatile applications across diverse industries such as automotive, construction, agriculture, sports, healthcare, defence, electronics, and environmental technologies. Technical textiles have established themselves as a future-oriented sector.

Recognizing this potential, the 8th International Conference on Technical Textiles & Nonwovens (ICTN 2026) invites you to be part of a global forum that brings together leading entrepreneurs, researchers, academicians, industry experts, and students. Scheduled to be held from 6–8 February 2026 at the Indian Institute of Technology Delhi, the conference will serve as a vibrant platform to share cutting-edge research, exchange forward-looking ideas, and explore technological breakthroughs in the field of technical textiles. The event also includes a range of cultural and social engagements to foster informal interactions and collaborations.

We warmly welcome you to join us at ICTN 2026 and experience an inspiring confluence of innovation, academia, and industry. Engage with global experts through keynote presentations, connect through networking sessions, witness the brilliance of emerging student research, and discover startup innovations shaping the future of this dynamic sector. Come be a part of this exciting journey at IIT Delhi-India's premier engineering institution-while also exploring the historic and cultural richness of New Delhi.
